

THANKYOU/APPRECIATIONLETTER

THANKYOU-BROTHER

To the times we fight and we argue but deep down we love each other the most, this goes to you brother:

Thank you for always saving me from mom and dads shouting's.

Thank you for making me strong enough to fight and protect myself.

Thank you for always being protective and pampering me just to see me happy.

Thank you for making sure that whenever I need advices I know who to count upon.

Thank you for always saving me the last bit of my favorite food.

Thank you for fighting for me when someone use to bully or chase me.

Thank you for all the experiences you share with me to make me feel comfortable to share my personal things with you.

Thank you for hugging me after we have a huge fight.

Thank you for all the chocolates, toys and my favorite things that you buy for me regardless of any occasion.

Thank you for making me feel that I always have someone with me.

If I had a chance to trade you for anything in this world I wouldn't.

With lots of love,

Your loving sister.

THANKYOU/APPRECIATIONLETTER

THANKYOU-BUILDER

Have you ever considered why it's important to thank a builder as well?

Read on:

Thank you for taking all the precautions before building an establishment or a house so that we don't face any problems later.

Thank you for all the hard work and sleepless nights you do just to build.

Thank you for giving us a beautiful building for us to stay or work.

Thank you for building such beautiful buildings to look upon.

Thank you for doing your work faster for those who don't have the patience to wait.

Thank you for never bringing your complaints or mixed emotions in between your work.

Thank you for making sure that the work is done at the proper time period stated.

Thank you for creating a building just according to our expectations.

Thank you for taking all the risks just to mold it into perfection.

Thank you for talking to us in a sweet tone and always ensuring that the work will be completed soon.

With all due respect and gratitude,

A happy buyer.