

Dear Farmer,

Thank you growing good crops and giving us our basic requirement, that is food. We have proper food to eat because of your efforts and sincerity.

Thank you for irrigating crops well, spending day and night taking care of them.

Thank you for keeping the weather conditions in mind while working on the crops and cattle.

Thank you for ploughing the field and sowing the seeds, and watering the fields regularly.

Thank you for protecting them against hail and frost, and putting pesticides to protect it from pests and insects, also guarding the harvest from thieves.

Thank you for growing crops and preventing the soil from soil erosion that may lead to floods.

Thank you for doing everything in your hands to provide us healthy and hygienic food.

I respect you for your honesty and hard work.

With respect,

A proud consumer.
