

Dear Postman,

You are a person noted for courageous acts or nobility of character; you truly are a “hero”. A messenger in times of grave need. A hero who delivers his service to dear & near one’s. There is no season in which you have taken an off. Be it a breezy day, stormy afternoon or scorching heat of the burning summers.

It shows your willingness and respect towards your job when you drop these letters patiently at our doorstep even when you get tired of your work with full of enthusiasm. Thank You for inspiring us to thrive for excellence!

Recalling my young days of my elder brother, who today is an Army Officer. In situations where only satellite phones connect you, one letter of happiness gave us a ray of hope of his survival. It is your dedication and timing that my mark sheet which was to be submitted to the Company reached way before time. I appreciate your very presence in our lives most important events. It reflects your sense of responsibility when you skilfully handover a parcel which could be a fragile one to its holder.

I would like to thank you for not just bringing smiles to my family but always keeping your smile alive. On a lighter note, it’s really hard to find an address and keep that smile on for long in days of awful weather.

Your patience, dedication & love for the job make me thank you & appreciate you on the little milestones of mine where you’ve played an integral part.

Thank you for teaching us a lot many life lessons which helps us to become a better human being!

With respect,

A grateful youngster
