

Dear Waiters/Waitresses

I wish to show my gratitude for your relentless efforts at making mine and everybody else's outings comfortable.

Thank you for being the polite and solemn soul even in when faced by unwarranted arrogance on the customers' side.

Thank you for calmly taking requests and orders from the customers and delivering the required delicacies.

Thank you for being kind enough to suggest food items when we are confused about what to order from the menu with confusing names.

Thank you for thoughtfully considering requests of suggesting dishes within a certain budget. It is quite helpful for students like me.

Thank you for delivering the same amount of decency and dedication to everyone irrespective of the amount of tips being received.

Thank you for being honest enough to return the lost items of the guests whenever found. Your honesty leaves a mark on the other person's soul.

Thank you for greeting with a smile every time passing on a sense of positivity on days when the daily doses of negativity has exhausted our energies. Your simple gesture delivered a sense of relief along with the delicacies on the table.

Thank you for coming up every day with a renewed sense of service towards the customers.

While several people might say that it is in your job profile to be polite, I understand the inlaid benevolence behind the behavior. And therefore would like to let you know that we value your efforts and dedication towards your job.

Thank you for being the person you are.

With appreciation

A grateful guest
