

Dear Animal Trainer,

Thank you for teaching animals how to behave and making them more friendly towards people.

Thank you for working day and night, looking after their health and food.

Thank you for being a hero, rescuing animals and providing them a proper training.

Thank you for being so observant towards their needs.

Thank you for being calm and loving towards them, teaching them with care.

Thank you for being dedicated and hard working towards your job, which requires a lot of patience.

Thank you for using different techniques and ideas to make them perform a certain task.

Thank you for training the dog as per the owner's needs, who might be disabled or blind.

Thank you teaching us how animals can be friendly with love and softness.

With respect,

A proud customer.