

Dear Priest,

The kind of inspiration for which you've always channelized is to lift others up from their deprived situation, to inspire the people of the world to higher aspirations, to provoke people to noble virtues and to raise the consciousness of mankind. The compassion, the feels for sympathy & for the psychological suffering in the souls of others, always seeks to lighten it by your encouraging way out of the situation.

This is a thank you letter to making me feel the sense of satisfaction over my quality of life. Your fulfilment to make things more comfortable in a material sense has grown me into a happier person than I ever was.

Oh, my natural healer- a special gift which can be as close as a dear friend for channelling huge amounts of healing energy into my soul. You're genuinely warm & your nurturing nature has inspired me to step beyond just myself but to embrace life fully.

Your essence in my existence has being of a server always uplifting me. You are the positive pole representing the highest, most authentic and positive expression of the soul, the true self, which is a source of love, truth and freedom. You are my secret messenger sent by god to show us the path of truth, happiness & transform our negative into positive ones.

A sheer moment of "I Do"—cannot be done without your presence. The day which stands to be one happy day for all.

Thank you for guiding and empathizing with my situation, grievance and sheer moments of happiness. With your blessing I'll always be happy!

With respect,

Your Precher
