

THANK YOU- GRANDMOTHER

Dear Grandma,

I love you! More than anything or anyone in this world, more than my parents, my relatives, my friends, more than anybody.

Thank you!

Thank you for being the most amazing woman I know or will ever know. Thank you for all the memories, for all the lessons you taught me.

Thank you for walking me to the school as a kid. I still remember I would hold your index finger with the whole of my hand and go to school every day.

Thank you for teaching me what love is. There is no greater love than what you and I share. I can't express in words what you mean to me and how much I owe you. I still remember that day you and I were sitting in the garden, you were peeling oranges and giving it to me and you ate one yourself and I exclaimed if you were going to eat it all! You taught me two things that day, care and selflessness.

Thank you for teaching me everything that came from your experience, I'm old enough but I still take your advice on important decisions; when I'm in a dilemma I look up to you before anyone else.

Thank you for being a fighter and fighting Cancer and thank you for making me a fighter along with you. I told you earlier, and I'm telling you now, we're going to beat it, I promise.

Amma, thank you for being there for me, I love you.

Yours,

Rohit.
