

Dear Colleague,

A best friend may or may not be a good colleague, but vice-versa is definitely possible. You made this possible! Thank you for that.

Your zeal is the toughest benchmark to beat at work. Thanks for adding life to my workplace.

Thanks for handling my Monday morning blues with patience and always being there by my side as a supportive wall. Life is a boomerang- you get served what you deserve, which means you are going to be successful in life because you are the one who helped me to achieve mine.

Ideal and Idol are both perfect prefixes to the colleague when it comes to you. An impeccable blend of hard worker and smart worker. You are the best perk I got in this company. Thank you for being such a great inspiration.

With praise,
Your colleague.
