

Dear Firefighter,

Thank you for saving lives and property.

Thank you for never hesitating in helping us and being punctual, regardless of time.

Thank you for other's life as a priority and giving them a chance to live.

Thank you for continuing with your job, even though you are not much appreciated. You are god in form of human.

Thank you for being our hero, money or words are not enough to thank you for what you do.

Thank you for collecting the evidence so that the situation does not rise again.

Thank you for providing first aid to the victims of fire.

Thank you for inspecting the buildings regularly to prevent a major accident.

Thank you for taking workshops for people to make them aware and avoid more fire accidents.

Thank you for your honour and self sacrifice, there is no greater work than saving a life and showing humanity.

With respect,

A happy citizen.
